1. Purpose

The Unit Outline Builder (UOB) is an online application designed to assist in the creation, revision, review, approval and publication of unit outlines. The UOB system extracts authoritative information from existing corporate applications, such as Student One and Alesco, and enables authorised people at Curtin University to produce and publish approved unit outlines.

The unit outline is a contractual obligation with students. Please be aware that any information manually entered must be entirely consistent with the boilerplate text and the data extracted from Student One.

IMPORTANT: The unit outline will automatically contain generic statements about unit learning outcomes, fair assessment through moderation, late assessment policy, assessment extensions, supplementary/deferred assessments, plagiarism, enrolment, student rights and responsibilities and student equity.

This document provides a step by step guide on how to use the Unit Outline Builder System.

2. Log in and Select a Unit

Browse to https://uob.curtin.edu.au and log in with your usual Curtin ID and password. This link is also available from the Curtin Teaching and Learning website under Quick Links.
A list of the units for which you are Unit Coordinator will appear. In order to have access to these units, you must be identified as the Unit Coordinator in Student One. Select the unit you wish to work on and click on View Availabilities.

If you receive the message “No units” you are not listed as Unit Coordinator for any units in Student One. Please contact your Teaching Support Officer for advice on the process for updating Student One. Once the Unit Coordinator details have been updated, you will be able to access your units within two hours.

If you are not the Unit Coordinator but wish to work on a unit outline, please contact the Unit Coordinator who can provide you with Contributor access.
